TO BECOME FAMILIAR WITH THE WRITINGS OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE WRITINGS OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH

Every single letter proceeding from Our mouth is endowed with such regenerative power as to enable it to bring into existence a new creation—a creation the magnitude of which is inscrutable to all save God. He verily hath knowledge of all things.

Bahá'u'lláh, quoted by Shoghi Effendi, The Advent of Divine Justice, p. 80

Through the movement of Our Pen of glory We have, at the bidding of the omnipotent Ordainer, breathed a new life into every human frame, and instilled into every word a fresh potency. All created things proclaim the evidences of this world-wide regeneration.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES AND SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES

KNOWLEDGE OBJECTIVES

• To know the manner in which the Writings of Bahá’u’lláh were revealed
• To know that the Writings of Bahá’u’lláh exceed 100 volumes and that they are all preserved in their original form

SUGGESTED LEARNING ACTIVITIES

• Relate stories from the histories of the Faith referring to the manner in which Bahá’u’lláh revealed His Writings, The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Two, pp. 163-67.
• Explain and role play the work of an amanuensis.
• Relate stories of His revelation of specific books (Kitáb-i-Íqán, in 48 hours; The Hidden Words, while walking along the banks of the Tigris, etc.).
• Compare the vastness of Bahá’u’lláh’s Writings with the revealed Word available to followers of former religions, (i.e. red letter edition of the Holy Bible, the Qur’án).
• Have the students investigate the rigorous and exacting work of translating the Writings (first by Shoghi Effendi, now by a committee to the Universal House of Justice), and how this rigor guarantees the preservation of Bahá’u’lláh’s Writings in their original form.

WISDOM OBJECTIVE

• To understand that all of Bahá’u’lláh’s Writings are the source of guidance for at least 1,000 years

SUGGESTED LEARNING ACTIVITIES

• Demonstrate in a visual, sequential manner the duration and effect of guidance from the Holy Books of previous religions and the promised duration of Bahá’u’lláh’s Writings.
• Use a scaled time line to visually demonstrate our current proximity to Bahá’u’lláh’s announcement and the span of time before another Manifestation appears.
• Share Bahá’u’lláh’s statements regarding the duration of time we will be guided by the Books He revealed.
• Present the Books of Bahá’u’lláh to the students with great reverence and make them accessible for their study and meditation.

- To discern the joy of immersing oneself in the Writings of Bahá’u’lláh
- To recognize that true study and understanding of the Writings comes about through action

SUGGESTED LEARNING ACTIVITIES

- Consult on the meaning of the Báb’s Words concerning “those who have ears yet hear not” (Bahá’í Prayers, p. 165).
- Use art media to symbolize the effect of God’s Words falling upon hearts that are pure and detached. Compare to the effect of the Writings on hearts turned towards the world.
- Demonstrate ‘Abdu’l-Bahá’s metaphor of a mirror turned toward the earth, or turned toward the light.
- Consult with the students to help each find her/his own place and method that enables her/him to read, meditate and reflect on the Writings.
- Read to the learners the Writings about the importance of deeds and putting faith into action. Through telling stories of their own experiences, explore how true unity results from actions.

Sample Activities

ACTIVITY: THE WORLD’S HOLY BOOKS

Wisdom Objective: To understand that all of Bahá’u’lláh’s Writings are the source of guidance for at least 1,000 years

Instructional Methods and Learning Tools: Engaging mind and heart; Direct use of Sacred Writings; Use of manipulatives; Use of power of reasoning; Use of questions

Suggested Time for Activity: 20 min.

Materials Needed:
- 5 yards of ribbon or yarn
- another ribbon, as long as possible
- one copy of each Holy Book; cards for the names of each Holy Book
- cards for names of each Prophet who revealed the Holy Book
- Marker

1. Announce that you will be taking a look at the power of God’s Word throughout history. Unfurl and lay out a ribbon, 5 yards long, as a time-line. Each yard roughly equals 1,000 years, the approximate time between Adam and the Báb—the Prophetic Cycle—being 5,000 years.

2. Beginning at one end of the ribbon, explain that Teachings of the earliest religions are unknown to us because they were so long ago and not written down. Place a name card for Adam. As you move down the ribbon, reverently place a copy of each Holy Book (or a card with its name), at its place on the time-line, along with the Name of its Author. Briefly mention that Book’s manner of being recorded, and the influence it played on the world.

3. At this point, announce that the Báb fulfilled the Prophetic Cycle, ushering in the Age of Fulfillment with the coming of Bahá’u’lláh! Bring out a new ribbon (as long as is obtainable). Attach it to the end of the old one, placing The Kitáb-í-Aqdas there. Tell children that this ribbon would have to be 500 yards long to show how long the world will be influenced by His Revelation—500,000 years. Stretch the ribbon out as far as it goes, then pace out the remaining distance to reach 500 yards.

4. Return to where The Kitáb-í-Aqdas is. Remind children that Bahá’u’lláh says that there will be another Messenger from God, in not less than 1,000 years. Place a card with ‘?’, 1 yard past The Kitáb-í-Aqdas. Explain that for the next 500,000 years the Manifestations of God will be under the shadow of Bahá’u’lláh’s Dispensation. See p. 115 of this Lesson Planning Guide.

5. Where are we on the time-line? Place a marker 3” beyond The Kitáb-í-Aqdas. Discuss how close we are to the beginnings of this Dispensation, and how long afterwards humanity will turn to Bahá’u’lláh’s Writings.

1. Share copies of Bahá’í books in Persian or Arabic. If available, have a Persian believer write and/or read aloud some verses, and share personal stories related to the challenges of translating from these languages into English.

2. Show a photograph of the Guardian. Describe how he became a master of the English language at Oxford University. Discuss the importance of his great care in assuring that the Writings were translated accurately.

3. Send students on a hunt: Find out how many Bahá’í Scriptures say, “Translated by Shoghi Effendi” on their title pages or include passages translated by the Guardian listed at the back of the book. Discuss the results of their investigation.

4. Display all of Bahá’u’lláh’s Writings thus far translated into English. Discuss the fact that this is only a small percentage of all His Writings.

Duration of the Bahá’í Cycle

Whoso layeth claim to a Revelation direct from God, ere the expiration of a full thousand years, such a man is assuredly a lying impostor. We pray God that He may graciously assist him to retract and repudiate such claim. Should he repent, God will, no doubt, forgive him.

Bahá’u’lláh, The Kitáb-i-Aqdas, p. 32

Briefly, we say a universal cycle in the world of existence signifies a long duration of time, and innumerable and incalculable periods and epochs. In such a cycle the Manifestations appear with splendor in the realm of the visible until a great and supreme Manifestation makes the world the center of His radiance. His appearance causes the world to attain to maturity, and the extension of His cycle is very great. Afterward, other Manifestations will arise under His shadow, Who according to the needs of the time will renew certain commandments relating to material questions and affairs, while remaining under His shadow.

We are in the cycle which began with Adam, and its supreme Manifestation is Bahá’u’lláh.

From this thou canst imagine the magnitude of the Bahá’í cycle—a cycle that must extend over a period of at least five hundred thousand years.

SHORT EXCERPTS FROM BOOKS WRITTEN BY BAHÁ’U’LLÁH

O Son of Spirit!
My first counsel is this: Possess a pure, kindly and radiant heart, that thine may be a sovereignty ancient, imperishable and everlasting.

Bahá’u’lláh, The Arabic Hidden Words, no. 1

O Son of Spirit!
Noble have I created thee, yet thou hast abased thyself. Rise then unto that for which thou wast created.

Bahá’u’lláh, The Arabic Hidden Words, no. 22

Let your vision be world-embracing, rather than confined to your own self.

Bahá’u’lláh, Tablets of Bahá’u’lláh, p. 87

Think not that We have revealed unto you a mere code of laws. Nay, rather, We have unsealed the choice Wine with the fingers of might and power.

Bahá’u’lláh, The Kitáb-i-Aqdas, p. 21

Through the movement of Our Pen of glory We have, at the bidding of the omnipotent Ordainer, breathed a new life into every human frame, and instilled into every word a fresh potency. All created things proclaim the evidences of this world-wide regeneration.

Bahá’u’lláh, Gleanings from the Writings of Babá’u’lláh, p. 92

From the sweet-scented streams of Thine eternity give me to drink, O my God, and of the fruits of the tree of Thy being enable me to taste, O my Hope!

Bahá’u’lláh, Prayers and Meditations by Babá’u’lláh, p. 258

O Son of Spirit!
O Children of Men!

Know ye not why We created you all from the same dust? That no one should exalt himself over the other. Ponder at all times in your hearts how ye were created. Since We have created you all from one same substance it is incumbent on you to be even as one soul, to walk with the same feet, eat with the same mouth and dwell in the same land, that from your inmost being, by your deeds and actions, the signs of oneness and the essence of detachment may be made manifest. Such is My counsel to you, O concourse of light! Heed ye this counsel that ye may obtain the fruit of holiness from the tree of wondrous glory.
