THE EXILES OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH TO CONSTANTINOPLE AND ADRIANOPLE

SPRITUAL QUALITIES RELEVANT TO THIS TOPIC:
FAITH, LOVE, DETACHMENT, HUMILITY, COMPASSION

O King! We were in Iraq, when the hour of parting arrived. At the bidding of the King of Islam (Sultan of Turkey) We set Our steps in his direction. Upon Our arrival, there befell Us at the hands of the malicious that which the books of the world can never adequately recount.

Bahá’u’lláh, Epistle to the Son of the Wolf, p. 51

Prosperity, contentment, and freedom, however much desired and conducive to the gladness of the human heart, can in no wise compare with the trials of homelessness and adversity in the pathway of God; for such exile and banishment are blessed by the divine favour, and are surely followed by the mercy of Providence.

Sample Activities

ACTIVITY: BAHÁ’U’LLÁH’S EXILES

Knowledge Objective: To know the circumstances of Bahá’u’lláh’s exile to Constantinople and Adrianople

Instructional Methods and Learning Tools: Direct use of the Sacred Writings; Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of the power of reasoning; Use of drama

Suggested Time for Activity: 60 min.

Materials Needed:
- The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Two or story from God Passes By provided on p. 32 of this Lesson Planning Guide
- flags, drums
- map of Middle East and Europe, or enlarge the map below
- markers, ice packs

1. Read the story “For Those Who Go First” from The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Two, p. 123, or read the account of Bahá’u’lláh’s departure from Baghdad in God Passes By, pp. 155-56, also provided on p. 32 of this Lesson Planning Guide.

2. Encourage the students to create a triumphant march commemorating Bahá’u’lláh’s departure from the city of Baghádád on horseback for Constantinople, the capitol of the Ottoman Empire. Remember that no one may play the part of Bahá’u’lláh.

3. Encourage “onlookers” to cheer, wave flags and beat drums.

4. Upon reaching “Constantinople,” refer to the map on the inside cover of The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Three, or a larger map if available. Point to Tíhrán. Discuss how, by banishing Bahá’u’lláh, His enemies actually helped His Cause spread throughout the world, instead of making it forgotten, as they had hoped. Mark the route of Bahá’u’lláh’s exile to Baghádád and Constantinople—noting the spread of the Faith as you do so.

5. Role-play the expected behavior of an important visitor to the capitol at that time, calling on the Foreign Minister within three days, begging him to arrange a meeting with the Grand Vizir; then begging the Grand Vizir to be allowed to see the Sultan, including asking favors and paying bribes, with much bowing before authorities.
GOAL: TO KNOW THE SIGNIFICANT EVENTS IN THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH

TOPIC: THE EXILES OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH TO CONSTANTINOPLE AND ADRIANOPLE

6. Discuss the reasons that Bahá’u’lláh refused to act like this and did not go to visit any dignitaries while in Constantinople.

Whenever high dignitaries of Persia came to that city (Constantinople) they would exert themselves to the utmost soliciting at every door such allowances and gifts as they might obtain. This Wronged One, however, if He hath done nothing that would redound to the glory of Persia, hath at least acted in a manner that could in no wise disgrace it.

Bahá’u’lláh, Epistle to the Son of the Wolf, p. 69

7. Explain that Bahá’u’lláh was sent away from Constantinople, still a prisoner, after only four months because He would not follow this undignified custom. The Manifestation of God does not come to beg favors of high officials but rather to bring the gift of God’s teachings for this age. He had arrived in the summer, now He and His family and companions had to leave in the winter—the coldest one in 100 years!

8. Simulate this journey with a walk in snow, if possible. If not, give the students ice packs to carry. Shiver as you describe how even the farm animals, used to living outside, froze to death; and how the exiles came across other travelers, frozen on the road. Describe the exiles’ walk through the cold mountains for twelve days and nights, finally arriving at a house with no heat.

10. Return to the map and trace this journey onto it.

ACTIVITY: BAHÁ’U’LLÁH’S PROCLAMATION TO THE KINGS AND RULERS

KNOWLEDGE OBJECTIVE: To know which Tablets of Bahá’u’lláh were revealed at this time

WISDOM OBJECTIVE: To understand the role of the events in Constantinople and Adrianople in the expansion of the Faith

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND LEARNING TOOLS: Direct use of the Sacred Writings; Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of the power of reasoning; Use of peer teaching; Independent investigation; Use of consultation

SUGGESTED TIME FOR ACTIVITY: 60 MIN.

Materials Needed:
- Proclamation of Bahá’u’lláh, The Promised Day is Come, The Summons of the Lord of Hosts
- Brilliant Star, Special Edition 1991, if available
- photographs of the kings and rulers, p. 33 of this Guide
- map of Middle East and Europe
- ribbon, special paper

1. Explain that Bahá’u’lláh lived in Adrianople for four years. Show on the map that He was now in Europe—the West.

2. Share with them the book, The Summons of the Lord of Hosts or Proclamation of Bahá’u’lláh and describe its contents.

Activity continues on next page ⇒

TOPIC: THE EXILES OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH TO CONSTANTINOPLE AND ADRIANOPLE

3. Have students work in groups, each to research Bahá’u’lláh’s Message to one of the earth’s rulers, for instance:
   - Napoleon III
   - Czar Alexander II
   - Pope Pius IX
   - Kaiser William I
   - Queen Victoria
   - Nasírí’d-Din Sháh

5. Invite each group to affix a photograph of their ruler to the map, color in his or her domain, and trace the route that Bahá’u’lláh’s Message may have taken to reach that ruler.

6. Have each group select portions of Bahá’u’lláh’s Tablet to that ruler, copy the selections onto special paper, roll up the paper and tie it with a ribbon, scroll-like. Address the scroll to the appropriate ruler.

ACTIVITY: STORIES OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH’S PROCLAMATIONS TO THE KINGS

ELOQUENT SPEECH OBJECTIVE: To describe events associated with the banishment and history of Bahá’u’lláh; To use the contents of Bahá’u’lláh’s Tablets to the kings and rulers, and historical events associated with those Tablets, to teach others about the Station of Bahá’u’lláh

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND LEARNING TOOLS: Direct use of the Sacred Writings; Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of the power of reasoning; Use of peer teaching; Use of questioning; Use of consultation; Use of drama

SUGGESTED TIME FOR ACTIVITY: 60 MIN.
Materials Needed:
- props for role play (hats, scarves, etc.)

1. Encourage each group create a brief dramatic presentation in which a messenger takes the Tablet to the ruler and reads aloud its contents (the portions they have chosen). The ruler reacts as recorded by Shoghi Effendi, and the consequences to his or her kingdom are enacted.

2. Follow the presentations with a session of peer questioning, in which each group further explores Bahá’u’lláh’s warnings and predictions to various rulers, and the results of their turning away from His advice.

3. Discuss the question, “How would the world be different if these rulers had accepted Bahá’u’lláh as the Manifestation of God for today?”
GOAL: TO KNOW THE SIGNIFICANT EVENTS IN THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH

TOPIC: THE EXILES OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH TO CONSTANTINOPLE AND ADRIANOPLE

ACTIVITY: BAHÁ’U’LLÁH’S REVELATION AFFECTS WORLD EVENTS

SPIRITUAL PERCEPTION OBJECTIVE: To analyze the effects of Bahá’u’lláh’s exiles to Constantinople and Adrianople in world history

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND LEARNING TOOLS: Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of the power of reasoning; Use of peer teaching; Use of consultation; Use of manipulatives

SUGGESTED TIME FOR ACTIVITY: 60 MIN.

Materials Needed:
• The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Three
• dominoes
• reference books described below

1. Divide students into three groups.

2. Ask each group to research the major events occurring in the world during the time of Bahá’u’lláh’s exiles to Constantinople and Adrianople, using almanacs, encyclopedias, the internet and other sources, if desired.

3. Then invite each group to read and discuss one of the following stories from The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Three:
   “In the House of God’s Command”
   “Accepting the Challenge.”

4. After reading the stories that describe important events within the Bahá’í community and considering the research about the events of the world during the time of Bahá’u’lláh’s exiles, invite students to discuss the relationship between events in world history and the Revelation of Bahá’u’lláh.

5. Engage students in setting up a dominoes line-up with a single starting point.

6. As you are working, brainstorm other statements of Bahá’u’lláh pertaining to world events, e.g., that world peace is inevitable, that there will be one universal language, that the nations will lay down their weapons.

7. Choose one of His promises to pronounce as the first domino is set in motion.

8. Elicit comments from the students that explain the analogy.

9. Repeat the exercise as desired, choosing another promise from Bahá’u’lláh, to be the generating impulse for the dominos to fall, as a symbol for the transformation of a world of war into a world of peace.

10. Explain that while we cannot know the exact timing or sequence of events, we have already learned both in our own lives and from our study of history that Bahá’u’lláh’s statements are true. Invite the students to share examples of the truth of Bahá’u’lláh’s statements from their own lives and from history.

11. Encourage them each to choose one act of service that they can complete within the coming week to help make these beautiful promises come true.
The departure of Bahá’u’lláh from the Garden of Ridván, at noon, on the 14th of Dhi’l-Qa’dih 1279 A.H. (May 3, 1863), witnessed scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm no less spectacular, and even more touching, than those which greeted Him when leaving His Most Great House in Baghdád. “The great tumult,” wrote an eyewitness, “associated in our minds with the Day of Gathering, the Day of Judgment, we beheld on that occasion. Believers and unbelievers alike sobbed and lamented. The chiefs and notables who had congregated were struck with wonder. Emotions were stirred to such depths as no tongue can describe, nor could any observer escape their contagion.”

“Numerous were the heads,” Nabil himself a witness of that memorable scene, recounts, “which, on every side, bowed to the dust at the feet of His horse, and kissed its hoofs, and countless were those who pressed forward to embrace His stirrups.” … “He (God) it was,” Bahá’u’lláh Himself declares, “Who enabled Me to depart out of the city (Baghdád), clothed with such majesty as none, except the denier and the malicious, can fail to acknowledge.” These marks of homage and devotion continued to surround Him until He was installed in Constantinople. Mirza Yahyá, while hurrying on foot, by his own choice, behind Bahá’u’lláh’s carriage, on the day of His arrival in that city, was overheard by Nabil to remark to Siyyid Muhammad: “Had I not chosen to hide myself, had I revealed my identity, the honor accorded Him (Bahá’u’lláh) on this day would have been mine too.”

A caravan, consisting of fifty mules, a mounted guard of ten soldiers with their officer, and seven pairs of howdahs, each pair surmounted by four parasols, was formed, and wended its way, by easy stages, and in the space of no less than a hundred and ten days, across the uplands, and through the defiles, the woods, valleys and pastures, comprising the picturesque scenery of eastern Anatolia, to the port of Samsun, on the Black Sea.

“According to the unanimous testimony of those we met in the course of that journey,” Nabil has recorded in his narrative, “never before had they witnessed along this route, over which governors and mushirs continually passed back and forth between Constantinople and Baghdád, any one travel in such state, dispense such hospitality to all, and accord to each so great a share of his bounty.” Sighting from His howdah the Black Sea, as He approached the port of Samsun, Bahá’u’lláh, at the request of Mírzá Áqá Ján, revealed a Tablet, designated Lawh-i-Hawdaj (Tablet of the Howdah), which by such allusions as the “Divine Touchstone,” “the grievous and tormenting Mischief,” reaffirmed and supplemented the dire predictions recorded in the recently revealed Tablet of the Holy Mariner.

TO KNOW THE SIGNIFICANT EVENTS IN THE LIFE AND MINISTRY OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH

THE EXILE OF BAHÁ’U’LLÁH TO THE HOLY LAND

SPIRITUAL QUALITIES RELEVANT TO THIS TOPIC: LOVE, COMPASSION, DETACHMENT, SACRIFICE

And further We have said: “More grievous became Our plight from day to day, nay, from hour to hour, until they took Us forth from Our prison and made Us, with glaring injustice, enter the Most Great Prison. And if anyone ask them: ‘For what crime were they imprisoned?’ they would answer and say: ‘They, verily, sought to supplant the Faith with a new religion!’ If that which is ancient be what ye prefer, wherefore, then, have ye discarded that which hath been set down in the Torah and the Evangel? Clear it up, O men! By My life! There is no place for you to flee to in this day. If this be My crime, then Muhammad, the Apostle of God, committed it before Me, and before Him He Who was the Spirit of God (Jesus Christ), and yet earlier He Who conversed with God (Moses). And if My sin be this, that I have exalted the Word of God and revealed His Cause, then indeed am I the greatest of sinners! Such a sin I will not barter for the kingdoms of earth and heaven.”

Bahá’u’lláh, Epistle to the Son of the Wolf, p. 52

The Blessed Perfection gave up a hundred lives at every breath. He bore calamities. He suffered anguish. He was imprisoned. He was chained. He was made homeless and was banished to distant lands. Finally, then, He lived out His days in the Most Great Prison.

Sample Activities

ACTIVITY: BAHÁ’U’LLÁH’S EXILE TO ‘AKKÁ

WISDOM OBJECTIVE: To understand the significance of the events of this period for the establishment of the Cause of Bahá’u’lláh

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND LEARNING TOOLS: Direct use of Sacred Writings; Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of the power of reasoning; Use of stories; Use of consultation; Use of manipulatives

SUGGESTED TIME FOR ACTIVITY: 20 MIN.

Materials Needed:
- The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Three
- map of the Middle East and Europe or an enlarged copy of the map on p. 28 of this Lesson Planning Guide

1. Explain how Mírzá Yahyá continuously contacted various government authorities to accuse Bahá’u’lláh of many crimes, including starving Mírzá Yahyá’s family and attempting to arrange for the Sháh’s murder. As a result, Bahá’u’lláh, His family, and friends were exiled from Adrianople to the farthest corner of the realm, the prison city of ‘Akká. Read the story “The Last Exile,” The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Three, pp. 57-61 and discuss the questions on p. 181 of that book.

2. Trace this journey on the map.

3. Share the Bible prophecy:
“they shall come to you from Assyria to Egypt to the River and from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.”
Micah 7:12

4. Assist the students to locate on the map the places named and alluded to by Micah. Discuss the significance of the literal fulfillment of this prophecy through Bahá’u’lláh’s banishment.

ACTIVITY: THE SUFFERINGS ENDURED IN ‘AKKÁ

KNOWLEDGE OBJECTIVE: To know the circumstances of Bahá’u’lláh’s exile to the Holy Land

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND LEARNING TOOLS: Direct use of Sacred Writings; Engaging mind and heart; Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of stories; Use of reflection

SUGGESTED TIME FOR ACTIVITY: 20 MIN.

Materials Needed:
- salty water and stale, hard bread

1. Describe the conditions of this journey, in the heat of summer, the filth and stench of ‘Akká, and the hostile attitude of the city’s residents towards the Bahá’ís when they arrived.

2. Give each student a taste of salty water and of hard, stale bread (dry in an oven to prevent mold). This is all Bahá’u’lláh and His followers had to eat their second day. There was nothing the first day!
3. Relate that almost all of the believers become very sick and that three died.

4. Encourage the students to lie down on the floor and imagine having no beds nor carpet to sleep on—instead there was only muddy dirt, filled with fleas and rats. Remind them that there were students, and mothers with babies among the almost 40 believers who chose to endure these sufferings to be with Bahá'u'lláh.

5. Share with the students Bahá'u'lláh’s Words designating ‘Akká as the Most Great Prison:

“Know thou that upon Our arrival at this Spot, We chose to designate it as the ‘Most Great Prison’. Though previously subjected in another land to chains and fetters, We yet refused to call it by that name. Say: Ponder thereon, O ye endued with understanding!”

Bahá'u'lláh, quoted by Shoghi Effendi, God Passes By, p. 185

ACTIVITY: THE MOST GREAT PRISON

SPIRITUAL PERCEPTION OBJECTIVE: To discern one’s commitment to Bahá'u'lláh through understanding the suffering and triumphs of Bahá'u'lláh, the Holy Family, and the pilgrims during this period of Bahá'í History

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND LEARNING TOOLS: Engaging mind and heart; Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of stories; Use of arts; Use of reflection; Use of manipulatives

SUGGESTED TIME FOR ACTIVITY: 60 MIN.

Materials Needed:
- one shoe box per student
- brown paper, white tissue paper
- knives or pointed scissors, markers, tape
- matchboxes
- music for reflection

1. Use shoeboxes with deep sides to represent the high walls completely surrounding the prison-city of ‘Akká. Cover the outside of the box with brown paper.

2. Use knives or scissors to cut a door in each end of the box to represent the two gates.

3. Label the model: ‘AKKÁ – THE MOST GREAT PRISON.

4. Cut 2 small openings near the top of one side of each box to represent the windows of Bahá'u'lláh’s cell.

5. Glue a small square of tissue to the outside of one window to represent Bahá'u'lláh’s handkerchief.

6. Tape a small matchbox inside the shoebox, near the top and by the windows to represent His room, which was up a steep flight of stairs.

7. Display the completed models. Ask the students to consider what it must have been like to be imprisoned there. Remind them that, through all of the suffering, the Bahá'ís were happy, patient, and loving to others.

8. Set the mood for this reflection with music, such as “The Prisoner,” from the album The Lote Tree, or “Allah Homa” from Songs of the Ancient Beauty; or show segments of the video, Prisoner of ‘Akká.”
GOAL: To know the significant events in the life and ministry of Bahá’u’lláh

TOPIC: The Exile of Bahá’u’lláh to the Holy Land

ACTIVITY: The Early Believers and Pilgrims to ‘Akka

Knowledge Objective: To know the conditions under which pilgrims traveled to be near Bahá’u’lláh, and the way they took the Message of Bahá’u’lláh to the world

Eloquent Speech Objectives: To describe the events of this period; To use the knowledge of the events of this period to gain inspiration for serving Bahá’u’lláh; To recall daily the sufferings of Bahá’u’lláh to gain spiritual strength

Instructional Methods and Learning Tools: Engaging mind and heart; Education directed toward recognition of God; Use of stories; Use of arts; Use of reflection; Use of meditation; Use of drama; Use of questioning

Suggested Time for Activity: 60 min.

Materials Needed:
- magnet and small metal objects
- small pieces of paper
- props for skits and storytelling

1. Share with the students that as soon as believers in Iran and elsewhere learned that Bahá’u’lláh was in ‘Akka, they set out to see Him. Describe the conditions of their journeys and that when the pilgrims arrived, they weren’t allowed inside.

2. Use a magnet and metal objects to demonstrate how ‘Akka became a point of pilgrimage.

3. Read the story, “The Faithful Heart,” from The Central Figures: Bahá’u’lláh, Vol. Three, pp. 115-17. In small groups have students practice retelling this story as well as relate examples from the lives of people they know who show their love for Bahá’u’lláh through their actions. Also assign the stories on pp. 62-73 of that book. Alternate stories are found in the List of Additional Resources, p. 42 of this Guide.

4. Invite the groups to make their presentations to the class. Arrange for these presentations to be repeated later as part of a community event, such as the Commemoration of the Ascension of Bahá’u’lláh.

5. Discuss the importance of stories from history and stories from our own lives to encourage us to ever strive to grow in our love for Bahá’u’lláh.

6. Ask students what sacrifices they would be willing to make to meet Bahá’u’lláh. Ask them to write these sacrifices on a small paper, which can be placed within the model of ‘Akka.

7. Give each student a copy of the following verse from the Tablet of Ahmad, to attach to an outer wall of their model to use as a daily meditation:

   “Remember My days during thy days, and My distress and banishment in this remote prison. And be thou so steadfast in My love that thy heart shall not waver…”

8. Suggest that they place their models where they will see them every day, to remember Bahá’u’lláh’s suffering, and strengthen their own love for Him.

9. Encourage them to track their progress toward their goal of sacrifice and thank God when they are able to achieve it. Remember to provide opportunities for sharing reflections on their sacrifice in subsequent classes.
Remember My days
during thy days,
and My distress and banishment
in this remote prison.
And be thou so steadfast
in My love that thy heart shall not waver…
